

“Preserving the Past to Inspire the Future”

Celebrating 200 Years of Methodism On the Western Frontier

September 21, 2019

*Hosted by: The Riddle Lecture Series, Center for Regional History, Southeast Missouri State University
And McKendree Chapel Memorial Association*

Name _____ Email _____
(Last) (First)

Address _____
Street City

State Zip Code

Phone _____ (Home/Work) _____ (Cell)

Registration: The Registration fee of $40 includes Lunch, Dinner, Breaks, and the book, Old McKendree Chapel by Frank C. Tucker. Students attend free; with registration.

Please check one of the following: FULL Day ($40) _____ Evening Only ($30) _____
Clergy* _____ Student (Free, does not include dinner) _____

Dietary Requests: Vegetarian _____ Food allergy _____

If paying by check, please print the form and return with payment to the Southeast District of the UMC, 6 N. Clark, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701. Make checks payable: Southeast District of the UMC.

If paying by credit card, you may register online at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/celebrating-200-years-of-methodism-on-the-western-frontier-symposium-registration-62231142021>

* Clergy participants wishing CEU's are to contact Lisa Conley at the SE District Office regarding registration and credits. Her contact information is southeast@moumethodist.org or (573)-334-8723. Scholarships are available.

QUESTIONS REGARDING THE SYMPOSIUM: Contact Adelaide Parsons at 573-339-8521 or ahparsons@charter.net